

Cathryn Wellner is an author, storyteller, and lifelong explorer of unexpected paths. Her work spans memoir, children's literature, and collections of true stories that explore resilience, community, and the quiet courage of everyday life. She is the author of Hope Wins, Feisty Aging, Millie's Feathered Foster Family, and The Reluctant Farmer. Born in the United States, she lived for many years in British Columbia before relocating to Australia, where she continues to write.